Kendualdern. This planet is ruled by dragons. Other races are present, and some struggle for dominion over the land, but in the grand scheme of things, the dragons rule. Dragons operate in a strict caste system, under the direction of their creator, The Aurean (a dragon god made entirely of light). The king class of dragons are immensely powerful, and create dwarves from the very stone of their mountain homes as servants and soldiers in their fight against the Void, a nebulous force that ...

Not the bad kind of hate, but the kind that had me internally screaming at the characters to do some other thing in my mind. So much fanfic potential. Temeraire is full of excellent worldbuilding. Each book takes Lawrence and Temeraire on a different mission into another culture and what it could have been if there were dragons.
