Dark Summer The Witchling 1

Dark Summer by Lizzy Ford combines love, hate, problems of finding your place, of trust and making the right choice. The book starts with Summer's arrival at a boarding school. She is picked up by Beck, whom she likes at once, since he seems to be a good-looking, good-natured and easy-going type of the guy.

Dark Summer (The Witchling, #1) by Lizzy Ford

Summer had a hard life being bounced from orphanage to orphanage and never feeling like she belonged until she goes to a new boarding school for gifted students. She loved the wide open spaces and nearby forests compared to the concrete jungle of LA.

The Witchling Series by Lizzy Ford - Goodreads

"Summer Night" is a novelette that introduces the second novel of the series, "Autumn Storm". It is a really welcome addition to the "Witchling Trilogy", as the first book ended in a HUGE cliffhanger. It picks up exactly from the point that "Dark Summer" ended, and it is written from the perspective of Beck and Rania. One of the b

These quotes are from one of my favorite books, Dark Summer by Lizzy Ford. The reason the title of this "chapter" has (v.1) in it is because there are two versions of the book; one was published by the author herself, the other by an actual publishing company. The first version, (v.1), is the one published by the author herself.
