The Climb Everest 2 Gordon
For The climb (Everest, #2) by Gordon Korman. I rated the book a 4. I rated it a 4 mostly because it was realist mostly, except the part where he is thirteen climbing Mt. Everest. This thrilling short story is about four teens taking on the challenge of being the youngest to climb Mt. Everest. I liked this book for many reasons.

The Climb, the second book in the “Everest” series, takes the SummitQuest team to Nepal. The sights and sounds Korman describes on the streets are just as detailed as the ones he describes in the mountains. Cap Cicero, an experienced mountaineer, is leading four teenage Alpinists up to the top of Mount Everest.

CM Magazine: The Climb. (Everest Book Two).
Gordon Korman has written so many good books that it’s always been hard for me to decide which one is my favorite. Sometimes I’d think it was Swindle, sometimes MacDonald Hall, and other times Everest. Korman did three action trilogies (each book is about 150 pages, so they’re quick reads): Island, Dive, and Everest. In Island, a group of kids gets stuck on an island.
