THE COUP | Kirkus Reviews

The Coup by John Updike. In his life, John Updike was considered to be one of, if not the, premier American novelists of the 20th century-his Rabbit Angstrom books are still considered to be one of the best satires of the archetypical downtrodden American husband and father (the genre arguably started by Sinclair Lewis' Babbit ), full of broken dreams and mediocrity as he struggles against the changes of the world around him.
