In 1996, at the height of Elmomania, when Tickle Me Elmo was the hottest toy around, Sesame Street foolishly decided to mess with perfection by releasing an Elmo-focussed sequel to its all-time best-selling and most beloved book, 1971's The Monster at the End of This Book: Starring Lovable, Furry Old Grover. The enduring genius of The Monster at the End of the Book lies in its loneliness, claustrophobia, and a beautifully cultivated sense of existential terror.
