The Usborne World of the Unknown series has lived on in the memories of a generation – and when the original readers of the 1970s and '80s grew up, they wanted it back.

Back from the dead: Usborne's World of the Unknown Ghosts

I have purchased both First and Second World War Usborne books. As expected from this publisher the books are very clear and cover a lot of ground with fantastic photographs and illustrations. We use them as part of our home educating for my two grandsons, but they would be a useful addition to anyone's bookshelf.
