Where are VW cylinder numbers? - Answers
On VW aircooled engines (used in the old beetles) it is as follows. Standing at the back of the vehicle, looking at the engine the cylinder on the left closest to you is #4, the one behind it is #1, the one in front is #2 and the one farthest right is #3. (Note: This is the reverse order of cylinder numbering for aircooled engines used in the Type 3 and Type 4 models.)
